4.2.3. Obtain information related to Expecto Balance;

4.2.4. Terminate this Agreement by a prior written notification of Expecto (including by electronic communication means). The Agreement shall be deemed terminated upon expiration of 7 (seven) days from Expecto's receipt of the notification.

5. Liability of the Parties

5.1. The Parties shall be liable for non-fulfilment or improper fulfilment of the terms and conditions hereof in a manner stipulated herein.
5.2. Except as expressly stated in this Agreement, Expecto shall have no liability to the Client for any loss or damage whatsoever arising from or in connection with the provision of Expecto Services or for any claim made against the Client by any third party.
5.3. Expecto shall not be held liable for the following:

- For any interruptions in rendering Expecto Services in case of failure of any non-Expecto software or hardware;
- For whole or partial suspensions of rendering Expecto Services due to replacement of the equipment or the software or completion of any other works required due to the need of maintenance and modernization of the software and/or the hardware;
- For functioning and accessibility of certain segments of the Internet. Expecto does not guarantee the opportunity of information exchange with such nodes or servers, which are temporarily or permanently not available through web-links posted on Internet websites;
- For any possible consequences unfavorable for the Client, which occurred due to provision of a phone consultation to the Client by Expecto's representatives (employees);
- For ensuring safety of the equipment and the software of the Client used for the purpose of receipt of the services hereunder;
- For the actions, services, content and data of third parties.

5.4. The Client is fully responsible for the information, requests and inquiries originating from the Client's email, which Expecto Account is assigned to during the Registration. The Parties agree and specify that such inquiries and requests, information originated from the Client's email with which Expecto Account is registered are acknowledged as the Client's official instructions to Expecto.

5.4.1. If the Client has reasons to believe that his/her email, which Expecto Account is assigned to, was hacked, accessed by third persons, other than those authorized by the Client, the Client shall immediately notify Expecto or Expecto System Proprietor thereof, with a view of taking the necessary protection of the Client's data. If no such notification from the Client is received by Expecto or Expecto System Proprietor, Expecto is not liable forthe consequences of such failure to notify, including the actions performed in Expecto System and (or) to Expecto using this email.

5.5. In case of violation by the Client of the conditions specified in clause 4.1.3.2 of this Agreement, the Client shall pay a penalty fee in the amount of transfers onto Facebook Ad Platform for the last three Reporting periods.
5.6. The Client is fully liable for compliance of advertising materials (their content) placed onto Ad Platforms through Expecto System, and/or connected with Expecto System with all the requirements established by the laws applicable on the territory targeted by the online advertising, including, but not limited to, the local law on advertising, fair competition, copyright and related rights, protection of brands and service marks.
5.7. No provisions of this Agreement exclude or limit the liability of the Parties for willful violations of its terms; and/or for fraudulent activities and deliberately misleading statements and/or guarantees; and/or for improper use of the Confidential Information, as defined in clause 9 below.

6. Advertising Materials and Advertising Campaigns

6.1. Expecto shall render Expecto Services in relation to Advertising Campaigns, which the Client prepares through the Client's interface in Expecto System and/or which the Client prepares externally (directly) on Ad Platforms. Such Advertising Campaigns can be accessed upon the Client’s authorization (signing in) in Expecto System using the Client's login and password.
6.2. All information of the Client's Advertising Campaigns is available in Expecto System and on Ad Platforms. This being said, access for placing by the Client of his/her Online Advertising is subject to Expecto System Proprietor.
6.3. The Client's advertising materials shall comply with all requirements specified by Ad Platforms. The Client shall independently familiarize him-/herself
6.4. Online Advertising placement shall start upon the Client's determination of all significant terms and conditions specified in the Advertising Campaign, and after the examination performed by Ad Platforms in relation to compliance of the Client's advertising materials with requirements to advertising materials specified by such Ad Platforms.

7. Cost of Expecto Services

7.1. The cost of Expecto Services is the aggregate cost of Internet Advertising placed onto and ran through Ad Platforms, which is set directly by such Ad Platforms, plus the cost of other services available to and consumed by the Client as part of Expecto System. The cost of such other/additional services is subject to Expecto System Proprietor and posted on the relevant Expecto branded website. This being said, Expecto reserves the right to charge additional fees for access to separate advertising campaign management features accessible through Expecto System, for the possibility of placing Online Advertising on some Ad Platforms, as well as for other additional Expecto Services.
7.2. The cost of placing Online Advertising onto Ad Platforms is determined directly by such Ad Platforms. This being said, for placing Online Advertising onto Facebook Ad Platform there is a management fee of 10% of the amount of money transferred thereto from Expecto Balance.
7.3. The volume and cost of Expecto Services rendered to the Client in the Reporting Period shall be equal to the volume of services specified in the Finance Section of Expecto System as a total of cash funds transferred from Expecto Balance onto Ad Platforms plus additional services in Expecto System, if any, for the specified period.

7.4. Cost of Expecto Services are shown in transaction history of Finance Section inclusive of all taxes, which have been charged upon refilling of Expecto Balance in accordance with the Client's country of residence, indicated during his/her Registration.
7.5. If during the current and previous months the Client did not refill his/her Expecto Balance, and also if during the last 3 (three) months the Client did not use Expecto Services ("Inactive period threshold"), the Client is charged a service fee in the amount of 50 (fifty) EUR per each month following Inactive period threshold, in which the Client continued not to use Expecto Services without Expecto being notified by the Client of his/her desire to delete Expecto Account and terminate this Agreement. The service fee is charged until Expecto Balance reaches zero.

8. Payment Procedure and VAT

8.1. The Client independently determines the payment amount for refilling Expecto Balance, which shall nonetheless be not less than the minimum specified in Expecto Account when performing a payment. The Client acknowledges the fact that any and all payment amounts of the Client are subject to payment commission plus value added tax/goods and services tax ("VAT") at the rate applicable in the country where the Client belongs. Expecto Balance is shown excluding payment commission and VAT applied to the payment amount.
8.2. Once the payment has been successfully made, the Client shall receive a confirmation thereof sent to his/her email specified during Registration and Expecto Balance shall be updated in Expecto System.
8.3. In case the Client's cash funds placed on Expecto Balance in Expecto System or transferred from Expecto Balance onto Ad Platforms are not spent or used by the Client within 3 (three) years, such cash funds will be written off in full for Expecto's benefit.
8.4. The Client may choose one of the payment methods: by a bank card, electronic funds through the relevant services or other payment methods subject to their availability in Expecto Account.
8.5. The Client's payment obligations shall be deemed fulfilled upon crediting cash funds to Expecto's settlement account. In case of an electronic payment made through the payment gateway available in Expecto System, the Client's payment is verified by the payment system.
8.6. All payment settlements hereunder shall be made in accordance with the requirements of Ad Platforms, through which Online Advertising is placed. In case the cost of placing Online Advertising onto Ad Platforms is determined in conditional currency units, payment for such placement shall be made at the rate of such conditional currency unit determined by the relevant Ad Platform.

9. Confidentiality

9.1. The Parties agree to keep secrecy and consider as confidential all information obtained in the scope hereof by either Party from the other Party and designated by the other Party as confidential information of such transferring Party (hereinafter referred to as the «Confidential Information»), and not to disclose, not to divulge, not to publish or otherwise provide such information to any third parties without the prior written permission of the Party transferring such information, except for the cases provided for by the legislation.

9.2. Each Party shall take all reasonable measures to protect the Confidential Information with the same degree of accuracy, as the reasonable and conscientious person will do. Access to the Confidential Information will be provided only to those employees of the Party (or other persons binding to the Party), who reasonably need it for execution of their job (service or other) duties aimed at fulfilment of this Agreement. Each Party shall bind its employees (or other persons) to undertake the same obligations related to the Confidential Information, which are binding hereunder for such Party.
9.3. The Confidential Information shall always remain the property of the Party, which transfers that information and may not be copied or otherwise reproduced without the prior written consent of such transferring Party.
9.4. With the purpose not to allow any eventual abuses regarding definition of volume and contents of the Confidential Information, the obligation to protect and to keep secret the Confidential Information of the disclosing Party shall also cover the information which:
was or became publicly available as of the moment of disclosure;
becomes known to the receiving Party from any source other than the disclosing Party, without any breach of the conditions hereof by the receiving Party;
was known to the receiving Party prior to disclosure of such information hereunder.
9.5. The obligation to keep the Confidential Information in secret in accordance with the terms of this section shall come into force upon acceptance of this Agreement by the Client and shall remain in force within 3 (three) years upon termination of this Agreement for any reason.

10. Personal Data Processing

10.1. For the purpose of fulfilment of the terms hereof, the Client shall agree to provide and give his/her consent to process his/her personal data (“Personal Data”) in accordance with the terms hereof and for the purpose of fulfilment hereof. Personal Data shall have a meaning of any personal information independently provided by the Client of himself/herself in Expecto System, including his/her Registration, in particular: name, surname, email and contact phone numbers.
10.2. Expecto shall guarantee the confidentiality of any personal data of the Client and shall provide access to any personal data only to the employees who need that information for the fulfilment of the conditions hereof, by securing abidance of Personal Data confidentiality by those employees as well as safety of Personal Data during processing thereof.
10.3. In case of the Client's loss of identification data (login/password) required for accessing Expecto System, the Client may request such data from Expecto, and Expecto, in turn, may provide such data only to the Client's email specified at the time of Registration. This being said, Expecto identifies the Client by a domain name, Advertising Campaign name, Advertisement ID, invoice number (if applicable), the Client’s ID number assigned to him/her during his/her Registration in Expecto System, ID of the Client’s accounts on Ad Platforms.

11. Force Majeure

11.1. The Parties are released from liability for any partial or complete non- fulfilment of their respective obligations pursuant hereto if such non-fulfilment was caused by action of any circumstances of the major force ("force majeure circumstances") that is any extraordinary and in the particular conditions unavoidable circumstances including mass disorder, prohibitions of governmental power, fire, acts of God, natural disasters and other circumstances acknowledged as force majeure by any public authority (other authorized body) of the country of the corresponding Party.
11.2. The Parties are obliged to notify each other in writing on the existence of any force majeure circumstances by submitting an email within 7 (seven) calendar days upon occurrence thereof.
11.3. In case the occurrence of force majeure circumstances directly affected the Parties' fulfilment of their obligations hereunder within the term specified herein, the term of services rendering shall be extended proportionally to the period of existence of such circumstances.

12. Term and Termination

12.1. This Agreement shall commence as at the date of its acceptance by the Client and remain in force for an indefinite period of time.
12.2. Expecto shall have the right to unilaterally and without judicial procedures suspend the provision of Expecto Services / terminate this Agreement in the event of a single violation by the Client of provisions of clause 4.3. hereof, as well as the Client’s single violation of any other material terms of this Agreement, including those relating to confidentiality, personal data processing and representations and warranties. In this case Expecto shall submit the relevant notification to the Client's email specified during his/her Registration. The remaining cash funds on Expecto Balance, if any, shall be written off to Expecto's benefit.
12.3. In case the Client makes a decision on termination of this Agreement, as described in clause 4.2.4. hereof, Expecto shall refund to the Client the non-used part of the deposited payment.

13. Representations and Warranties

13.1. The Client represents and warrants that:

13.1.1. The Client enters into this Agreement voluntarily, the Client (the Client’s representative): a) is at least 18 years old, b) has fully read the Agreement’s terms and conditions, c) fully understands the subject of the Agreement, d) fully understands the meaning and consequences of his/her actions regarding execution of this Agreement, e) fully understands and agrees that Expecto Services are provided “As Is” and “As Available,” without express or implied warranty or condition of any kind.
